

Inter School Mass Drawing Competition

By "Sparsh - A Touch"

"Every child is an artist", keeping this in mind and to explore the creative potentials in the young minds of our children an interschool mass drawing competition was conducted by "Sparsh - A Touch" organization in the premises of Little Flowers International School on Aug 19, 2018, Sunday. There were around 400 participants from various schools. The drawings were done so beautifully and diligently by the children, it was a treat to the eyes. This fun filled activity witnessed enthusiastic participation by all the students. After the competition the participants along with their parents were called upon for a colourful and vibrant cultural programme organized in the school Auditorium. Mr. Rakesh Sharma (Drama Artist), Mr. Radhey Shyam Meena (ACP/ARC), Mr. Narendra Singhal, Mr. Omkar Dutt Sharma (Retired Yoga teacher) and Dr. Sweena (Vice Chairman, LFIS), Mr. Rajesh Dua (Chairman, LFIS), Mr. Anil Dogra (Vice Principal, Little Flowers Public Sr. Sec. School), Mrs. Anita Mahajan (Vice Principal, LFIS), Mrs. Vimmi Jain (Head Mistress, Little Flowers Public School, Yamuna Vihar) and Mrs. Bhavna (Co-ordinator, LFIS), were the chief dignitaries. The students of Little Flowers Public Sr. Sec. School, Shivaji Park gave an astonishing dance performance on India Pakistan Division. The students of LFIS gave a magnificent demonstration of Janamashtami through their dance. The senior students presented a thought provoking drama on cleanliness and received an overwhelming response from the audience. Then at last to acknowledge the talent of the young artists the Prize Distribution Ceremony was held. The Little Florians bagged various positions in all categories. The result is highlighted under:

Student's Name	Class	Position	Category
Kanishka Bhardwaj	III C	I	A
Anshika Gupta	III B	II	A
Satyam Tondak	III A	III	A
Anshika Sharma	IV C	III	B
Bhavika	VIII B	III	C

Certificates were awarded to the winners and the programme ended on a peaceful note.