

6th D.R. Patel Memorial Award Function

Little Flowers Group of Schools celebrated 6th D.R. Patel Memorial Awards Function on 19th July, 2018, Thursday with immense happiness and enthusiasm. It was a great day to remember One Great Man That is our Bade Sirji Shri D.R. Patel. The inter school competitions provided a platform to the students to showcase their talent, apply their skills and increase their efficiency. Keeping in mind, the depleting Earth conditions and the need to spread awareness, this year's theme was GREEN MINDS. Around 14 schools participated in the competitions held in various categories. Esteemed personalities from the field of education, drama, etc. were called upon to judge the competitions. Among the guests of honour there were Mr. S.K. Sharma (DDE, Zone V), Smt. Meena Kumari (Principal Zeenat Mahal) and various dignitaries of our School Management. School Vice Principal Mrs. Anita Mahajan, gave a heartwarming welcome speech. The School Co-ordinator Mrs. Bhavna emphasized the importance of these competitions paying a tribute to our BADE SIRJI. Dr. Deepali Bhalla (Manager, Little Flowers Public School) sang an awakening song on Delhi's pollution in her melodious voice. The students from all the schools participated with great vigour, fun and frolic and the winners got medals and cash prizes. Students from both junior and senior sections presented a colourful cultural dance which was applauded by everyone. The guests of the occasion were felicitated with green plants by school staff. In the end, School Chairman Mr. Rajesh Dua proposed a vote of thanks.
