

Inter House Extempore Competition

"Extemporaneous speaking is a blend of preparation and spontaneity, where knowledge meets improvisation."

Little Flowers International School hosted an Interhouse "Extempore" competition on April 22, 2024, for classes V to X. Three students from each house showcased their views on environmental topics like ocean conservation and sustainable development. Anshika Gupta (Lotus house) clinched first place, followed by Namra Khan (Rose house) in second, and Nidhi (Jasmine house) in third; Vanika Anand (Jasmine house) received consolation. Judges evaluated participants on content, fluency, confidence, and presentation. The event concluded with words of encouragement from judges and Vice Principal, Mrs. Bhavna Arora.
